

OMAR GRAYSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

HAROLD SCHULER,

Defendant.

Grayson now asks the Court to reset the conference. Based on the change of address Grayson recently submitted, it appears he is still detained in the Cook County Jail. The Cook County Sheriff's Inmate Locator website indicates Grayson's next court date on the criminal charges is June 8, 2012.¹ Because of the potential that the June 8 hearing might affect Grayson's custody status, the Court will reschedule its status conference after that date.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the status conference is reset for June 28, 2012, at 2:00 p.m. in the East St. Louis Courthouse. Plaintiff Grayson is ORDERED to appear in person. Plaintiff Grayson is ADVISED of his ongoing responsibility to keep the Court informed of his address. Grayson is FURTHER ADVISED that failure to keep the Court advised of his address may result in failing to receive orders and notices of the Court or in dismissal for failure to prosecute the case.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: May 17, 2012

DONALD G. WILKERSON
United States Magistrate Judge

¹ Cook County Sheriff, <http://www.cookcountysheriff.org> (last accessed May 16, 2012).
